
renovator's notebook

designer challenge

can store-bought cabinets look custom?

Lured by the affordability of ready-made options (but skeptical of their limitations), we asked designers Jason Bell, duo Christina Murphy and Meg Hengerer, and Joe Serrins to create kitchens around a stock style of their choice. The outcome: three unbelievably distinctive rooms.

photographs by Annie Schlecter produced by Kate Townsend prop styling by Rebecca Omweg

the result

To preserve the monochromatic composition, Serrins faced the GE dishwasher with a Moderno appliance front. CONTACT JOE SERRINS AT (212) 675-5220.

DISHWASHER GE Profile about $1,349 geappliances.com for stores LOW GLASS CYLINDER (holding paper towels) 10" x 4" $12 jamaligarden.com CUTTING BOARD Maple $80 williams-sonoma.com COFFEEMAKER Jasper Morrison for Rowenta $175 momastore.org TUMBLERS "Marta" $1.50 to $2.50 each, cb2.com WINEGLASSES "Hampshire" $25 each, and CLEAR GLASS BOWL 10" $70 Calvin Klein Collection (212) 292-9000 DISHES Jasper Morrison for Rosenthal porcelain "Moon White" $113/five-piece setting, and TEAPOT $165 michaelcina.com

BTW: Many of the materials used in this story will have a second life, thanks to Build It Green (BIGNYC.ORG). The New York nonprofit picks up surplus and salvaged building supplies (for free!) and resells them at low cost. To find a similar outlet near you, go to REDO.ORG.